AlterNativity – The event is now in its 22nd year and the main thrust is that it changes how we do our Christmas shopping and offer us to give each other gifts that someone else actually needs and appreciates. Next weekend, order forms will be available for you to take and think about how you might want to do your shopping this Christmas. If anyone can help with publicity, please see Fr.Frank, David Baxendale or Paul Scola So hopefully we will get a good response once again this year and remember that this is not about making money but changing people's habits! We will also need small cakes on the day and a few people to help with making tea and coffee for an hour or so.

November Dead List – is a traditional way of remembering our deceased family and friends during the month of November and throughout the year, as you will see from the Mass intentions published regularly in the panel here. You take a form, fill it in with the names of those people you want to pray for written legibly in capital letters and hand the form in with an offering for the Masses. The names are then placed on lists in our three parishes and displayed in November, and the Masses said throughout the year. The forms are now available to collect and return.

First Communion 2027 – we hope to celebrate First Holy Communion in June next year. A letter to all parents of Year 4 children has been sent out inviting those families who regularly practice their faith at Mass to apply to join the preparation programme for children and parents which will commence on Monday evenings from November 30th 6.15-7.30pm. When you have considered if this might be an appropriate step for you and your children to take, please write a letter of application (not an email) and hand it in to the priests or at the Priory. The deadline for applications is Thursday October 29th. No applications will be accepted after that day as the catechists have to meet and sort out the programme for the year.

Single People's Lunch – Sunday November 15 This is the day when we will also be celebrating Fr.Brian's 90th birthday with him as he joins us for Mass. Invitations for the lunch are now available and if anyone wants to help with catering there will be a meeting at 6.45pm in the Carbery Room on Monday November 2nd. We are not having a collection for Fr.Brian as such but if you would like to contribute to giving him a little present to help with his next trip to Rome, please place it in an envelope marked 'Fr.Brian' and hand it in to the priests.

"Tell Me a Story" – is the title of the play we are hoping to present in the first week of January. At the request of the cast, rehearsals will now begin at 3.30pm on Sundays until 5.15pm. There is no rehearsal this weekend as it is half term so our next meeting will be next at 3.30pm in the centre. We still need more boys and girls to come along and be involved, so if you are interested please come today or speak to Fr.Frank or Max Turco.

SPANNED Jubilee Mass – thanks to Mark and Jo Rowley, our recent golden Jubilee Mass can now be seen on YouTube. To find it, please go to YouTube @ st.dominic's community and select golden jubilee of SPANNED.

Retiring collection – at the request of the Bishops, there will be a retiring collection next weekend for the hospices in the diocese, many of which are experiencing serious financial difficulties at the moment due to cuts in government funding. This applies particularly to our own lovely LOROS hospice in Leicester, which we are all keen to support.

The joy of art – we are very blessed to have bespoke works of art created by parishioners and local artists in our churches: the stained glass and baptismal font in Hinckley along with banners by Catherine McGlynn and Mary Tovey, the statuary, glass, altar, lectern and stations in Earl Shilton by Carmel Cauchi and now a beautiful sketch of the 'mother and child' from Sudan by Edith Webb in Market Bosworth. This will be joined shortly by the very striking stations of the cross by Stephanie Libreros. We give thanks for the great gifts and inspiration of them all.

Extra Mass – there will be an extra Mass on Monday November 2nd at 6.00pm for All Souls Day, when we remember all who have died.

Mass intentions – we have now run out of Mass intentions with the exception of some for the Dead List and those requested for specific dates. So if you wish to have a Mass said for someone, kindly put their name on an envelope, place an offering in it if you wish and hand it in to the sacristy or Priory.

Remembrance Day service – November 8th in Argent's Mead at 11.00am. The second Mass will begin at 9.30am to enable people to go down and take part in the town service.

Service for Deceased parishioners – November 8th at 6.00pm. we will be having our usual service that evening, beginning in our cemetery which is now lit up at night. We will need readers and helpers for the service in church.
